A wardrobe is a place to keep clothes and all the outfit accessories. A wardrobe is an important part of a room as it is a storage space for all the clothes and accessories such as shoes, jewelry, make-up, handbags, quilts, pillows, bedsheets, and a mirror. Evolution in wardrobe design has been occurring since the 17th century, and still, more modifications are made every day.

Designing a wardrobe takes special fashion expertise to build it according to the required size, dimensions, and placement. A Wardrobe plan is mapped in the designing process, and it contains wardrobe plan symbols. All the symbols in a library represent each category of wardrobe accessories.

1. What Are the Wardrobe Plan Symbols

A wardrobe plan¹ is a large cabinet to stow outfits and other fashion accessories. It is an organized space in a room that impressions a systemized cabinet or set of cabinets to hang clothes, keep shoes, make-up, bedding additions, and many other fashion items. A well-designed and planned wardrobe changes the whole look of a room and puts a pleasant impression on anyone entering the room or wardrobe corner.

An Interior designer is usually hired for wardrobe designing, and he maps a professional and embellished design for meeting the client's requirements. This all designing process gets easy by using EdrawMax software as it offers many templates for wardrobe designing which align wardrobe plan symbols to represent each wardrobe element.

Use of wardrobe plan symbols:

- Enables a designer to consider every inch of a wardrobe space.
- Helps fully utilize the capacity for a wardrobe cabinet.
- A design is made according to the taste and style of a client.
- Designs get modified day by day so that modifications can be made any time any day.
- Seasonal capacity for clothes is usually different, so a wardrobe is mapped according to seasonal needs.
